Dear Parent/Carer,

You will be aware that heavy snowfall has been predicted for later this week.

As a regional academy, our students travel from various locations and the weather in these areas will differ. Therefore, we will trust your judgment if you feel it is unsafe for your son/daughter to travel to BOA or if there is disruption to travel in your area.

If we decide we have to close the school, we will update the BOA website and local radio stations as soon as possible.

Our website address is www.boa-academy.co.uk

Yours sincerely

John Reilly
Principal
